AITUTAKI

The lagoon and island of Aitutaki is known as an "almost atoll", with fifteen islets in a lagoon adjacent to the main island. The island is shaped like a fishhook. There are numerous sandy beaches along the west coast and quiet villages along the east coast. The highest point is Maungapu at 124 meters (this viewpoint is just a few minutes' walk from the resort). The lagoon is dotted with uninhabited islands ripe for exploring. The coral lagoon measures approximately 15 km from top to bottom and 12 km along the base. It is teeming with colourful tropical fish, abundant coral, sea turtles and expansive sandy beaches. Numerous lagoon cruises are available offering various snorkelling/island/cruise options.

Takurua

Island Night Buffet

At Tamanu Beach Resort, we take great pride in sharing our Aitutaki culture, cuisine, music, and dance with both visitors and locals. Our Aitutaki pork and Ika Mata (raw fish salad) is a favourite among local families.

As in traditional times of sharing and celebration - at the Tamanu Island night you may be seated with locals or other visitors from around the globe.

The "Are Karioi" dance team, which includes family members and staff, showcases our Aitutaki and Polynesian heritage through performances by the young people of Aitutaki.

Food is essential, and our very own mouth-watering traditional island Takurua Buffet is truly special. We encourage guests to visit the buffet table at least three times to savour all the local flavours
